This year, the 10th international Iai-Jutsu seminar took place with Sekiguchi Komei, 21st Master of MUSO JIKIDEN EISHIN RYU IAI-JUTSU from 10.05. - 12.05.2019 in Bartholomä.

Shibucho Rudi Strobel (representative for Germany) was delighted to welcome the 21st main champion Sekiguchi Komei as well as his assistant Sonoko Nakano-Beers, the Shibucho of Switzerland Hugo Ulrich and the Shibucho of Spain Marcos Sala.

The seminar was attended by students from Japan, Mexico, Spain, Switzerland and of course Germany. Under the guidance of chief master Sekiguchi Komei-Sensei and Sonko-Sensei, six hours were intensively trained during the three days.

This time Kihon (basic form) was the priority. Kunitachi (partner forms) were mainly practiced in order to maintain a sensitive body feeling and to develop the necessary Ki (willpower).

The training was carried out in several training sessions, so on Friday the group "Okuden Tachi Waza" in Kihon (basic form) and "Shoden" were practiced. On Saturday, "Kunitachi, Nan Hon" (partner form) was trained all day to get more precision. Finally, Sunday was again quite exhausting because there were the groups "Chuden", "Toryu Bangai" and "Kunitachi Tsume Iai" trained.

Of course, there was a get-together in the evening after the meal where the personal contacts were refreshed, or new ones were made.

During the traditional awarding of participation certificates, Sekiguchi Komei-Sensei received a certificate of honor from the Dojo MaRiBu for the 10th anniversary of his visits to Germany.

After three days of hard training, the guests and participants took their leave. On Monday, our grandmaster Sekiguchi Komei was taken to Munich airport with Sonoko-sensei and Onoe-san, so they could travel back to Japan.

Everyone was excited about the seminar. So the date for the next seminar in 2020 was set. We all look forward to welcoming our grandmaster Sekiguchi Komei back to Bartholomä from 15th to 17th May 2020.
